What is a Notary?

Notaries are qualified lawyers appointed by the Court of Faculties of the Archbishop of Canterbury to draft, review and authenticate legal documents, signatures and transactions for use outside of the United Kingdom.

Both individuals and companies use Notary services for help with a range of different legal matters, and of the 900 Notaries currently registered in England and Wales, Andrew Hurrell is the only Solicitor Notary practising in the Southend and Thorpe Bay area.

Notary Services

Authenticating documents for use overseas is just one of the services Andrew offers.

Most clients already know that they require the services of a Notary, but some still need guidance. As a Notary, Andrew is authorised to offer the following services to his clients:

- Witness Powers of Attorney for use abroad
- Oversee international property transactions
- Provide necessary documentation for an overseas property transaction
- Sign personal documents required for immigration or emigration
- Sign documents required for working or marrying abroad
- Approve company and business transactions
- Note and draw protests in maritime matters
- Protest bills of exchange
- Repayments of bonds of debenture
- Completion of documents required to register a company overseas
- Administration of oaths
- Authenticate almost any other transaction or document
- Translation into Russian and Ukrainian

Andrew Hurrell

Andrew Hurrell is currently the only practising Solicitor Notary in the local area.

Working in the Southend and Thorpe Bay area, Andrew has been providing Notary services to clients for over 20 years. Throughout this period, he has helped both individuals and businesses with their specialist legal needs whilst adapting to a growing demand. It's this commitment to clients that has seen Andrew supplement a traditional Notary offering with Russian translation services and introduce commuter opening hours so that everyone has access to the legal support they need.
